

Best price comparison for products

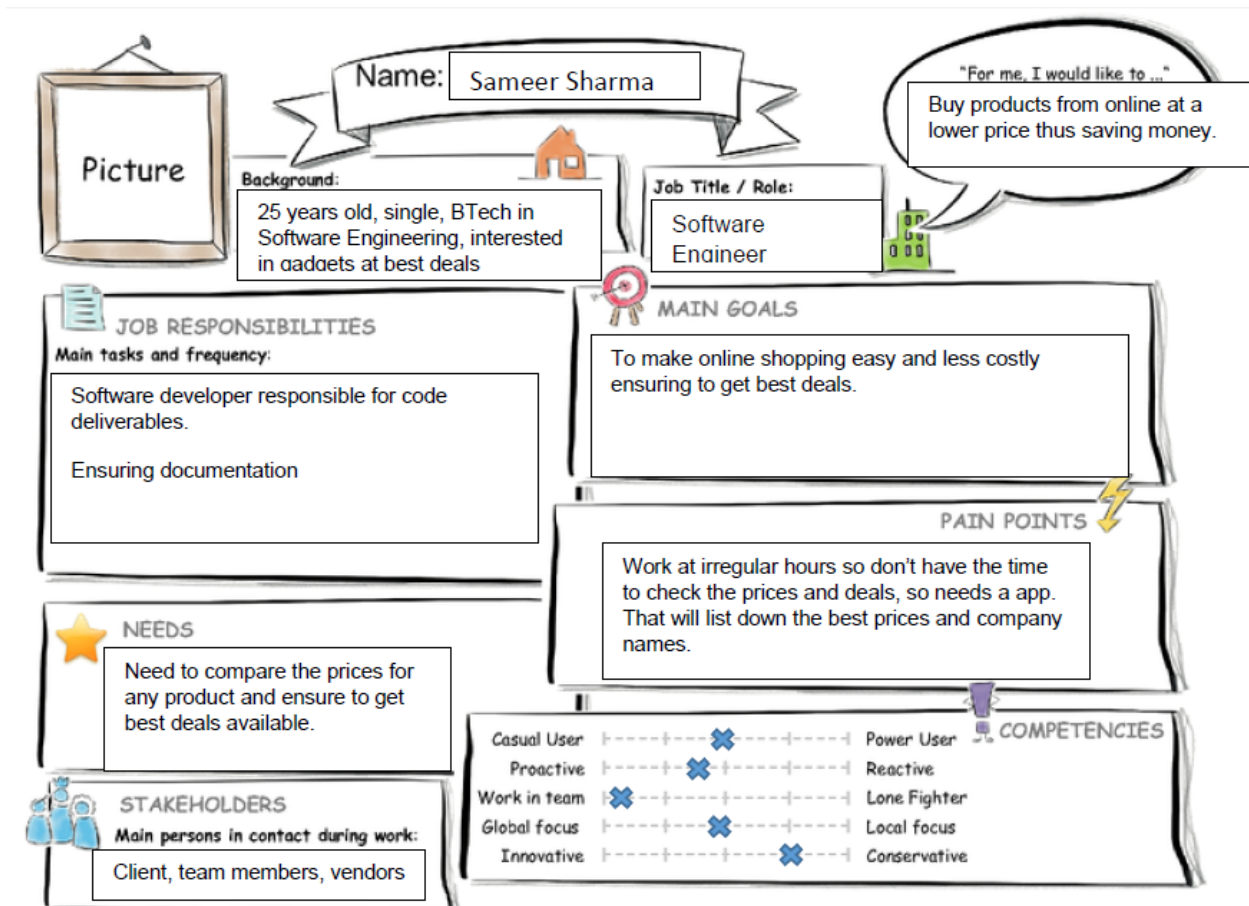

Story:

With the increasing e-commerce websites, the market becomes more competitive, and the companies starts to give more and more attractive deals in order to strengthen their position in the market.

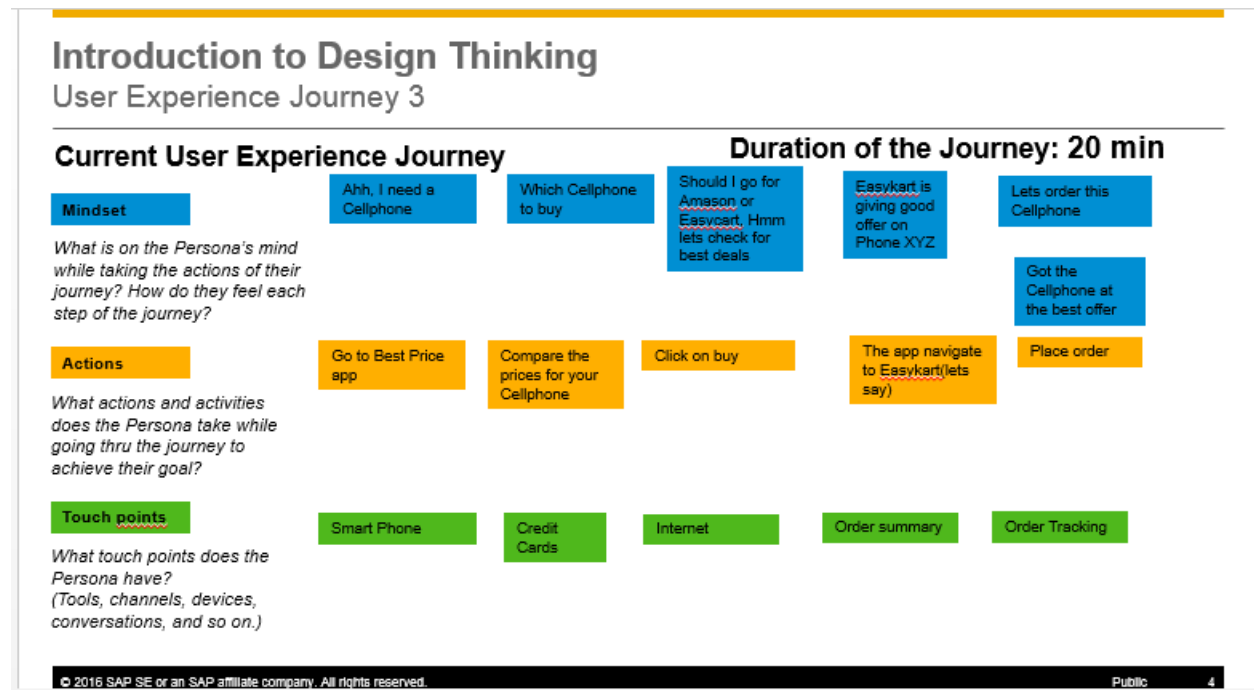

However as a customer, sometimes it becomes hectic and time consuming task to go to all sites and compare the prices for a particular product.

Thus there comes a need for an app. That will give the best price of a particular product comparing the best e-commerce sites, making the task less hectic and less time consuming.
